REPORT

Corinne Reybroeck - from Belgium and visiting Cambridge Meridian teaching pro - finished on a brilliant total of 4 over par 226, two strokes ahead of Finnish amateur, Minna Kaarnalahti on 228. Tied third were English amateur, Amanda Mayne and USA professional, and the holder, Susan Moon.

Corinne opened with a one under par 73, including an eagle 2 on the par 4 seventh! And then finished with three consecutive bogeys!

“I was hoping for a sub-70 round and new course record but it wasn’t to be.”

Minna Kaarnalahti, the outstanding Finnish amateur. came close to being the first amateur winner of the championship, but Corinne hung on for a superb two shot win.

Jane West won the best veteran prize for over 60's, England (Helen Potts, Bev New and Amanda Mayne) won the Nations Cup just ahead of Wales, and Somerset won the county prize - team of Bev New and Amanda Mayne.

Best net for the 54 holes was won by Cheryl Smyth, ahead of Jane West and Sandie Meacher.

Amanda Mayne won the putting championship with a fantastic score for the 36 holes of 61.

44 players competed for the 2013 English Ladies’ Seniors International. This year’s field included players from the USA, France, Belgium, Finland, Germany, the Netherlands, Ireland and all four home countries. This year’s competitors included 8 golfers from the Netherlands and 6 from Finland!
